Terms Required for Commissioned Orders

I will contact you before I begin crafting your instrument. One-third of the purchase price is required before I begin the instrument. The remainder of the purchase price is due prior to shipment of the instrument. Checks, money orders or credit cards will be accepted for payment. The instrument will come with a suspension case and will be insured and shipped by Fed-Ex or UPS (one to three-day delivery – your preference).

Customer satisfaction is very important to me! I will do my utmost to meet your specifications and produce a quality instrument both in workmanship and tone. You will have a 15-day trial period in which to ensure the instrument meets your expectations. If you decide to return the instrument within the 15-day trial period, you will be responsible for the return shipping and insurance fees. You must properly pack, insure and ship the instrument back to me in the same manner it was shipped to you. Once the instrument is returned to me in excellent condition, I will credit your credit card account or refund your money minus a 5% return fee to cover my shipping and resale costs.
